Examination of Personal Documents belonging to UJDROWSY

REF: EGMA-6641, dated 24 September 1958

1. Forwarded for information are the following photographic copies of documents and papers that were among UJDROWSY's personal effects at the time of his arrest:

- a. A German translation of a KUBARK study entitled "Support to 'Illegals' Furnished by KGB Residences under Official Cover," together with a German translation of an HLB memo dated 22 October 1958 with which the original English version of the "study" (received in HLB as an attachment to Reference) was transmitted to CATIDE.
- b. A set of penciled notes which, according to Fleming, had been prepared initially by former HLB officer [ ] shortly prior to the UJDROWSY UJDRACO trip.

2. In passing this material Fleming stated that it must be assumed that UJDROWSY had already passed the "study" (which according to Fleming included one of the sketches prepared by Dr. Herder) to UJDROWSY's Soviet employers.

Attachment: As stated, herewith
